IN CAPITAL CHURCHES

Christianity's Most Solemn Day Will Be Observed Generally by Washington Congregations.

Good Friday, the anniversary which the church observes of the day on which the Christ died on the cross, is to be observed with appropriate ceremonies in many of the churches of Washington tomorrow.

In the Roman Catholic churches the services will be held during the morning and early afternoon and evening, while in those of the Protestant Episcopal denomination the hour set for the opening will be held at various hours of the morning.

In many of the churches of other denominations services will be held during the afternoon and evening.

At St. Paul's Episcopal Church the three-hour service will be conducted by the rector, Rev. Dr. Robert Talbot, from noon to 3 o'clock.

In All Souls' Protestant Episcopal Church the service of the day will be at 1 o'clock, when Rev. Dr. Macbride Sterrett, the rector, will preach.

At St. Aloysius Roman Catholic Church the first service of the day will be at 8 o'clock in the morning, when the mass of the presanctified will be celebrated by the pastor, Rev. P. J. Donnelly, S. J.

The second service of the mass will be by Rev. W. Hagen, S. J., at 12 o'clock. Dubois' "Seven Last Words" will be sung.

At St. John's Episcopal Church, the service of the day will be at 11 o'clock, when the title to the musical service to be given in Fifth Baptist Church, E street near 7th street, southwest, in the evening at 7:45 o'clock with the full choir of forty voices under the direction of William J. There will be a short organ recital preceding the service and appropriate scriptural interludes between the choral numbers will be read by the pastor, Rev. John E. Briggs.

LIBERTY LEAGUE GETS A SHARP RAP FROM SUNDAY

Evangelist Tells Baltimore Audience He Hopes to Return to Fight the "Bunch."

Special Dispatch to The Star. BALTIMORE, April 20.—Twenty-two thousand people, making up the congregation in the Tabernacle, were stirred to a remarkable extent last evening by Billy Sunday's sermon on "The Unpardonable Sin," 437 hit the trail after a single invitation, and the campaign reached a new climax of fervor.

The throng packed the huge building to the walls; men and women and children sat on the steps of the platform, stood along the east and west aisles, packed the corridors almost to the danger point, crowded under the elevated chair platforms and overflowed into a throng of more than 5,000 persons outside, who, unable to gain entrance, yet remained massed about the open doorways.

Admission tickets were of little use, and a line of people holding them extended two blocks down Greenmount avenue, yet they could not get in.

Not Through With Them. The evangelist first aroused the fervid enthusiasm of the multitude when, after declaring that he felt that everybody in Baltimore was now counted among his friends, except the adherents of the Personal Liberty League ("and I don't want their friendship"), he repeated this promise, made a few nights ago.

"Believe me, I'm not through with that God-forsaken, hell-born bunch, and if I'm able to stand up and have the time, I'm coming back here and fight 'em to the finish! See? I'm giving 'em the ultimatum, like President Wilson gave Germany."

The evening trail-hitters rolled the day total far above that of an average day, for 114 had been listed at the afternoon service; fifty at the morning prayer meeting; twenty-seven at the Garden Theater and twenty-two at a meeting held by the Rev. Dr. J. E. Walker in Crisp Memorial Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn. The total was 650.

Twenty-two thousand people made up the evening congregation and fully 5,000 were turned away. Seven thousand attended in the afternoon. This brought the grand total of attendance to date to 1,197,306.

TURKS AND BULGARS MASSACRE
GREEKS AND PILLAGE TOWNS

LONDON, April 20.—Wholesale massacres of Greeks at Adrianople, Constantinople and Smyrna are reported in a Saloniki dispatch to the Morning Post.

"In Adrianople and Demotica Turks and Bulgarians, acting together," says the dispatch, "killed 400 and wounded 300 Greeks after pillaging their houses. In the Smyrna district several Greek villages were raided, 200 persons being killed and many wounded."

"Constantinople was likewise the scene of serious massacres, no figures pertaining to which," adds the correspondent, "being available. All the massacres occurred April 11."

A Reuter's Saloniki dispatch says that enemy detachments carried off a number of Greeks from villages between Doran and Ajinaji Wednesday, but did not molest the Turkish or Bulgarian inhabitants.

IS ADJUDGED GUILTY.

M. E. Church Committee's Report on Conduct of Rev. J. D. Darling.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 20.—Rev. J. D. Darling, former secretary of the Ohio Sunday School Association, was found guilty of conduct unbecoming a minister by a committee of representatives of the churches of the Methodist Episcopal Church here last night.

The committee in its decision stated that no testimony had been given proving immorality on the part of the Rev. Mr. Darling, but that he has "indulged in an easy and indiscreet familiarity toward women, especially in correspondence."

Rev. Mr. Darling recently came into unpleasant notoriety through the publication of charges that he had exchanged letters with young women. Portions of a letter addressed to him were said to have been found in a waste basket.

FORD PEACE ADVOCATES
APPEAL TO BELLIGERENTS

Urge Transfer of No Territory After War Without Consent of Population Involved.

STOCKHOLM, April 20.—Setting forth the principle that no transfer of territory should take place without the consent of the population involved, an appeal issued by the Henry Ford peace conference (the neutral conference for continuous mediation) to the governments and parliaments and peoples of the belligerent powers asks that they adhere to this and other principles and measures suggested as a basis for ending the war and preventing a recurrence of hostilities.

The appeal asks the restoration of Belgium, the return of the occupied French territory, a reconsideration of the Alsace-Lorraine question, assurance of independence for Serbia and Montenegro, union of the Polish nation as an independent people, adjustment of the frontiers between Austria and Italy, as far as possible on the principle of nationality, and the solution of various national questions in the Balkans and Turkey and autonomy for Armenia by international agreement.

The internationalization of the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles, the return of the German colonies and assurance of access to the near east for Germany are other measures urged.

To bring about "the creation of an international order of justice" the necessity of a world congress of both belligerents and neutrals is asserted, with an international organization, including an agreement to submit all disputes between nations for peaceful settlement, together with disarmament.

The freedom of the seas and parliamentary control of foreign policy should also be provided for, the appeal declares.
